Alumni Fund has Official Kick-Off

Toronto Chapter Reception

On September 13 at the University Club, the first meeting in 1983 of the Toronto chapter was convened. Chapter President, Doug Robson, called the meeting to order and welcomed the more than 100 guests. He spoke briefly about the purpose of the chapter and the need to maintain the contact between the alumni and their alma mater.

Among the many guests, Dr. Harrower, Dr. Tamblyn, Dusty Miller, John Valley and John Sharpe were present to meet and greet the Toronto alumni and also to officially kick off the Alumni Annual Fund in Toronto.

The message was loud and clear. The leadership canvass was complete and was a resounding success, both in terms of contributions and participation. It was stressed that broad-based participation is the most important part of our Alumni Annual Fund and it is hoped that all alumni would make some kind of response to the Annual Fund appeal.

Monies realized in the Fund will go towards student aid, special projects within the various faculties that don't qualify for Foundation or Advancement funding and finally for those alumni who wish to do so, contributions may be designated to specific programs or projects provided they are consistent with University policy.

Dr. Tamblyn, Dr. Harrower, Dusty Miller and John Valley spoke about the history, current developments and the dreams and expectations of our university. The need for a strong and active alumni body was stressed not only in terms of the financial support but also in terms of the leadership and governance of the institution.

At the conclusion of a very pleasant evening, alumni and guests retired looking forward to the next Toronto Chapter Meeting which is tentatively scheduled for March '84.

Friday, September 16, was the official "Kick-Off" of the first organized and widespread alumni fund-raising project in the history of Lakehead University.

Most campaign captains were in attendance to hear encouraging words from a group of distinguished speakers.

John Sharpe introduced the session by saying that "all the ingredients are there for a successful campaign". It is now a case of putting all facets into action. John then introduced campaign co-chairperson for this year, John Valley. Both expressed apologies on behalf of Dusty Miller the other co-chairperson, who was out of town on business.

John Valley indicated that the original goal for the first campaign was set at a modest $10,000. This was based on the concept of a dollar donated by each of Lakehead's 10,000 plus graduates. The goal was set so that it was attainable in the first year so that volunteers would not become frustrated or disappointed. If the unofficial campaign to date is any indication, it's going to be a tremendous campaign. In fact, a redefined goal of $15,000 has been set since $7,000 has been collected before the official kick-off. The volunteers were cautioned that this was no reason to become complacent and not campaign strongly. By the close of the campaign on November 16, we'll find out how hard the volunteers worked and how well you, the graduates, have responded to a very important resource in our lives - Lakehead University.

John then introduced Dr. Harrower, President of Lakehead. Dr. Harrower said "that the future success of Lakehead depends on an active and forward-looking alumni body. Funds raised will allow the university to do new things as well as doing some of the things done now in a better way.

"The private funding of universities has always been an important source of revenue." The public funding is obviously important but restraint in the sector is a reality. Lakehead has a national resource in its alumni. A good indication of the strength of a university is the strength of and support from its alumni. "Our graduates are our most important product. We're pleased and proud of them and are pleased to see the beginning of a thriving Alumni Association.

Next, at the podium was the first President of Lakehead, Dr. William Tamblyn. He referred to a recent chapter meeting in Toronto which saw 100 LU graduates gather to organize their campaign. Dr. Tamblyn was impressed with the enthusiasm shown at the Toronto meeting and pleased in general with how well Lakehead graduates are doing in their respective communities. He did say that there were times during his administration when he wondered what would happen to some of the graduates when you had things like "sit-ins" occur. The "Father" of Lakehead University, as John Valley referred to him, concluded his remarks by wishing everyone success in the campaign.

John Valley then introduced the man he called the "Godfather" of Lakehead University, Chancellor Robert J. Prettie. Dr. Prettie said that the alumni fundraising campaign was undercutting his former efforts but he really didn't mind. He is proud of the alumni of the school especially those who are children or grandchildren of staff at LU. He urged everyone to work hard to meet their campaign objectives.

John Valley closed the official portion of the evening held in the Faculty Lounge with a reminder of our objective and the importance of how we get there.

Memories - from old year books

Metamorphosis: Year book of the Lakehead College, Arts, Science and Technology - Session 1959, 1960.

Competing against 21 debating teams from 11 universities in the United States, a team from the Lakehead College Arts, Science and Technology placed third during the third annual debate tournament at the University of Minnesota, Duluth branch.

The Lakehead College debaters made up of William Melnyk, Miss Pat Shannon, Don LeCocq and Robert McAlpine formed the two debating teams from the Lakehead College which participated in the tournament.

Only five teams came through the three gruelling rounds of debate undefeated. Of these Wisconsin State won, for the third successive year, with a total of 38 team points. North Dakota was second with 35 team points and the Lakehead College team of Melnyk and Shannon was third with 35 team points, ahead of UMD which scored 30 points, St. Cloud with 29 and the rest of the field.

The Lakehead College teams were the only Canadian participants. Each team had to debate in three rounds, taking both the affirmative and negative sides of the U.S. National debate topic: "Resolved that Congress should be given the power to reverse decisions".

It's interesting to note that Dr. T.B. Miller is still on staff at Lakehead University in the History Department, and that Dr. W.T. Melnyk is now a faculty member in the Psychology Department as well.

Award of Appreciation for Moe Ktytor

by Larry Heber

Recently Moe Ktytor (BA Economics '69) left the Board of Directors of the Lakehead University Alumni Association. Some uninformed individuals might assume that this was just an ordinary turnover in the life of an elected group. In the case of Moe Ktytor the assumption would be entirely false.

Moe Ktytor has been the single most important person in the development of the Lakehead University Alumni Association. Recently Moe was invited to an Alumni Board meeting to receive special recognition for his contributions.

Moe Ktytor has worked in the Placement Centre at Lakehead University since the mid '80's. He even found enough time to pick up his B.A. on a part time basis. Right from Day One whether it was because of his job or for other reasons. Moe could see the value of a strong alumni association for our young university. Moe could foresee the way former graduates helped him when they returned to Lakehead during recruiting drives to hire students for the companies for which they now worked.

Moe continually advised administration of the importance of a commitment to an alumni association.

Working with very little funds and equally small amounts of volunteer help Moe kept the Alumni concept alive with socials related to the convocation period and continual lobbying of former students he felt would spearhead an alumni association. Once again, during the 1970's, Moe suggested to administration the importance of having full time staff to organize an effective alumni group.

Moe tried to "show" his alumni by being the first to organize former graduates (alumni) to marshal their former disciplines at Convocation exercises.

Fortunately, tough economic times have shown Moe's foresight to be 20/20. Administration realized the value of having an alumni group to call upon for fundraising projects to help their school survive and prosper in this day of restraint and economic hardship.

Moe Ktytor can afford to leave the Board now because the Alumni Association is heading in the positive direction that he predicted almost twenty years ago. With John Sharpe and his staff of paid employees, the university's commitment is now certain as well.

Alumni President Dusty Miller summed it all up when she presented Moe with his gift, "Thank you Moe Ktytor for all your work in making the Alumni Association a reality."

Matching Gifts

As a relatively young university, Lakehead is beginning to develop its alumni services in a big way. The support of former students of Lakehead University can contribute substantially to the growth and development of the North's only university.

"Matching gift" programs, firmly entrenched in colleges and universities in the United States, are becoming common in Canadian educational institutions, including L.U.

More than 400 companies have such programs, which work like this: As part of its corporate donations program, the company matches whatever financial contribution an employee makes to his or her university.

The Alumni Association at Lakehead University is encouraging alumni who make donations to consult their employers to find out if such a plan is subscribed to by the company. Often employers will double their employee's contribution to his or her university.

Corporate matching gift programs started in the U.S. in 1955 when General Electric set up the first arrangement of its kind. Canadian General Electric followed in 1957 with the first corporate alumnus program in Canada.

Typically, Chevron Canada Resources established a gift program in 1976 to "broaden Chevron's support of higher education and to give employees a voice in the distribution of the company's financial contributions to institutions of higher learning."

A corporation generally puts a top and bottom figure on how much they will annually donate per employee, the figures usually range from $25 to $5,000 plus.

Many corporations are increasing the ratio of their matching contributions from the standard 1-to-1 to as much as 2-to-1. Companies such as Suncor, Texaco, Chevron Resources, Johnson & Johnson, Procter and Gamble, United Technologies and, most recently, IBM have these higher ratios.

As well as bringing money to the university, the program also helps find out where graduates are located and where they are working. As a relatively young university, L.U. has just recently started actively pursuing and maintaining alumni connections. Universities such as McGill and Queen's have well established alumni and matching gift programs and Lakehead hopes to do the same.

It's important to make graduates aware that their companies have matching gift opportunities. The programs that a company has will only help if the employee and university take advantage of the opportunity. The efforts the development office is now making should help create alumni awareness.

Alumni who want to find out more information about ways of getting their gifts "matched" by their employers should approach the corporate affairs office or personnel department of their employer or call Alumni Services at L.U.

John Valley Wins Big!

Last month, John Valley, co-chairman of the Alumni Annual Fund, won the Men's Match Play Championship at Glen Abbey Golf Club in Oakville. Competition consisted of 54 holes of play with the last two of three rounds being played on the long tees (those used in the Canadian Open). He beat last year's defending champion with a five-stroke victory and is very proud of this recent accomplishment.

Maureen Twigg

The Alumni Association wishes to extend its sincere apologies to Thunder Bay Alumni Team Fund member Maureen Twigg. Maureen, who should have appeared under the Professional category with other team fund members on page 8 of our June 22 issue, was somehow overlooked. We regret any inconvenience or embarrassment this may have caused her.

Letters

LETTERS is a forum for membership opinion and views. Thoughts expressed by writers are their own and do not necessarily reflect the view of The Alumni Association of Lakehead University. We reserve the right to edit submissions.

I thank you for the copy of LU Week 2 Volume 10. In reading I am happy seeing some familiar faces especially in the Phys. Ed. '73 pictures. I am sorry I did not know of the reunion because I would have been interested in it.

There are about half a dozen LU Grads in Edmonton that I talk to and we do enjoy reading the paper.

I was married on May 6, 1983 and enjoyed a honeymoon in Hawaii and California with a few days in the mountains to top things off.

I am presently taking a few courses towards my master's in Business Administration. One would think that after three degrees that one would be tired of University. However, one can always learn more.

I am presently managing an Oil Supply Company in Edmonton and enjoying it. If you see Ron McKechney from the Phys. Ed. Department please say hi.

Yours truly,
Kerry W. Brown 77

We appreciate receiving the Alumni News.

Lydia Ritchie (nee Kruz) 82
Anthony Ritchie 80

I really enjoyed the alumni issue.

Susan M. Drever (nee Wheeler) 82

Since births are a form of class news - why not amalgamate the two. Also if possible along with mention of the births it would be good to know the whereabouts of the parents. This would make the entries more interesting. Good Luck with your next issue!

Dave Chapeski 76

Just wanted to let you know how much I enjoy getting Alumni News. Really brings me up on what's happening at Lakehead University. Thanks! And keep up the good work.

Suzan Hebditch 78

It is great to keep informed of classmates.

I enjoy Alumni News and look forward to receiving issues of LU Week 2.

Classmates

Former LU students are making the news, and accomplishing noteworthy things. We invite you to submit personal information or information about a former classmate. Apart from "Class News", the following is an example of the kinds of things we would like to use in "Classmates".

Dave White ('81) and Kevin DeRosiers ('80) are attempting to round up Northern Alberta Chapter of Lakehead University Alumni Association. Dave, known more commonly at LU as the "Masher", made the front page of his home town paper, "Grande Prairie this week".

Glimpse of a different driving crowd by Kathy Murrie

What's at least 35 years old, has 400 wheels and horns? The participants in the June 24-26 Western Canadian Street Rods Championships.

Local rod driver Dave White, with his eye-catching rebuilt Ford Model T Roadster, motored down along with the only other two northern Alberta entries, Lavern Lizee and Ron Elko of High Prairie to join with over 100 other car buffs in Banff.

"Street rods" are street-legal (more or less), restored, pre-1948 vintage cars, plus some of the accepted classics of the fifties and can be authentically restored or customized, like White's Model T, the "Mashmobile". His is a 1923 chassis, with a fibreglass body, which took two years to put together, starting back in 1977.

The Banff gathering drew entries from all over British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan as well as the western United States. The three-day event included a social campout, scavenger hunt, barbecue, and "shine and show." Awards were given to some of the best-looking vehicles as well as novelty awards such as to the entry from the farthest point from Banff.

Sponsored by the Edmonton Car Club, the "Touring Tin," the 14th annual championships were just one highlight of summer shows in which the real enthusiast can participate. There is a run or show virtually every weekend, within driving distance, of Grande Prairie.

With the idea of starting a club locally, Dave White is interested in talking to those who might want to join and take part in such events as the County Fair parade and a possible local rod run. It could also be the means for exchanging or finding parts and expertise in restoring that prized piece of road machinery. Give him a call at 539-6103.

Dave White's hybrid little car started life as a 1923 Model T, but restoration and customizing since 1977 have given it a whole new look as the "Mashmobile" street rod. Having taken part in the late June Western Canadian Street Rod Championships, Dave is interested in forming a local club.

Profile on Moe Siemieniuk
by Larry Hebert '69

Moe Siemieniuk was a popular member of his graduating classes in History (Honours B.A. '69) and Business (Graduate Diploma in Business '72) and today is a popular and competent professional working for Dunwoody and Company, Chartered Accounts.

Any issue of the house organ for Dunwoody will usually comment on Moe either because of a professional acknowledgement or a social celebration. Moe has a great love and zest for life and the good things it brings.

Moe lists as one of his major accomplishments the raising of his family along with Melanie his wife. Passing the very difficult C.A. exam is also considered by Moe to be one of his premiere feats.

Except for a bad knee as a result of Moe's basketball career, he would probably be a scratch handicap golfer. As it is, Moe is an excellent player who always finishes near the top in any tournament he enters. Winning the Bill Gordon tournament a few years ago with Vico Rocco (business faculty) is one of Moe's golfing highlights.

Moe's current job is Tax Manager for Dunwoody and Company in Edmonton. Previous to this position, Moe worked in Toronto for both Dunwoody and Company and Clarkson Gordon. Moe commenced his accounting career with Clarkson Gordon in Thunder Bay.

Moe is a loyal alumni member who is intimately involved in establishing a group in Edmonton for former LU graduates. Moe believes in Lakehead very much. His three wishes for LU are:

- 1) economic prosperity and attaining national recognition as a top grade university.
- 2) a large LU reunion
- 3) a strong alumni association.

Moe is the type of person who will not sit back and let someone else do it. He is taking proactive steps to make his wishes a reality by working to strengthen a young alumni association. He served on the Alumni Association's Board of Directors as the Western Member at Large in 1982-83.

Moe's fondest memory of his days at Lakehead University are those from his basketball playing days when the Nor'Westers were just in their infant stages.

A few more Moe Siemieniuk types and Lakehead will achieve his wishes.

Profile on Jim Foulds
by Larry Hebert '69

One of the more famous alumni members of Lakehead University is Jim Foulds, MPP, Member of the Legislature for Port Arthur and Deputy Leader of the NDP in Ontario.

Jim is an alumnus of the former Lakehead Technical Institute which had its home on Cumberland Street. Jim took his first year of Arts at Lakehead Technical Institute in 1955-56 and then completed his BA at UBC in 1963. He completed his teacher training at the Ontario College of Education in 1965.

Jim taught for twelve years in various schools in Northwestern Ontario and at successively increasing levels of responsibility. At this point in his career, Jim moved into the elected political sphere by receiving the NDP nomination in the Port Arthur riding in 1971. He has since won successive elections in 1975, 1977 and 1981.

From the beginning of his elected political career at Queen's Park it is obvious that Jim's abilities were recognized. He was NDP Education Critic from 1971-76, spokesman on northern issues and a member of the Select Committee on Educational facilities from 1972-74.

In the non-educational areas, he has been a member of the Standing Committee on Social Development (1972-76), member of the Private Bills Committee (1971-73), member of the Resources Development Committee (1976-78) and vice-chairman of the Select Committee on Ontario Hydro (1977-80). Jim's educational expertise was also shown when he became the first member in the legislature to sponsor a private member's bill making mandatory special education for handicapped and exceptional children. Other important private member's bills have been his forte with regards to issues such as regeneration and reforestation in the woods industry and consumer protection with regards to funeral services. His current legislative responsibilities include the Energy portfolio and Deputy Leader of the NDP.

Naturally Jim has had a long and varied affiliation with clubs and groups in his profession and in Northwestern Ontario. These would include the Board of Quetico Centre, Cambrian Players and OSSTF (District 29) member.

Jim listed his two major accomplishments as "his sponsoring the special education bill for the handicapped and winning four elections".

Not only is Jim a famous alumni member, but wife Judy has held executive positions in the NDP party. Their two sons have excelled in swimming. When Jim and Judy have the opportunity, they travel with the children to meet around the nation.

Jim's fondest memories of Lakehead University include "Dr. Tom Miller's lectures in History, Philosophy and English (1955-56)" and "dodging the rain drops in the spring thaw in '56 at the old Lakehead Technical Institute building on Cumberland Street".

Jim's wish for Lakehead University is for it to "maintain its position as a fine Regional University, especially in Forestry but that it also achieve a National reputation in the Humanities and the Sciences."

Jim is indeed one of our more successful and well-known graduates.

BPHE Class of '73 Ten-Year Reunion

by Dick Henderson '73

It's difficult to believe that ten years ago we were labouring over summer jobs and anxiously awaiting that one phone call upon which our future vocations would hinge.

The Class of '73 BPHE got together on July 15th weekend to trade experiences and "summon up remembrances of things past". Doug Rydholm, alias "the coach" - among others, and his organizing committee did a super job in organizing and planning this once-in-a-lifetime event. To their credit and hard work, the events were greatly appreciated and tremendously popular.

On Wednesday night, alumni, spouses and friends got together over a few cool ones in the faculty lounge. Stories, experiences, and updated personal information were shared.

Those of us who saw the morning on Thursday rounded up the dusty old golf clubs and headed to Centennial Golf Course for a "competitive" round of golf. Five hours later, under the blistering Thunder Bay sun, some possessed adventurers even managed to finish the nine holes. Most, however, ran out of balls so finished the round in the pleasurable air-conditioned surroundings of the 19th hole.

The competition continued at dinner time as the families gathered for a barbeque at Trowbridge Falls Kinsmen's Park. The only discernable metre stick that indicated the passing of ten years was the collection of "ankle biters", "rug rats", and "munchkins" that accompanied the alumni and spouses.

Friday saw the class head to the Stanley Hotel and a day of tubing on the Kam. Many stories about the great camping trip the class enjoyed some eleven years previous were retold and remembered during the two-hour trip. Classmates got together later that evening at Uhryniuk's camp at MacKenzie Heights. The Saturday morning sun finally ended the conversations and reacquaintances. Ten years really doesn't seem that long until one engages in exchanges of experiences between friends fashioned over fourteen years ago.

Class of '73, BPHE 10 Year Reunion

Saturday's afternoon sun and Chippewa Park provided the setting for the family picnic. Kids' races and activities and the amusement park kept the youngsters hopping. A very special skydiving performance by National Team member Kathy Kangas high-lighted the program as the parachutists plummeted to earth through a combination of free falls, twisters and round-houses, only to land inches from the enthusiastic crowd of youngsters.

The finale to the gala extravaganza was the seafood smorgasbord at the Valhalla on the Saturday evening. Although the minds were willing, the flesh was a little tired as the "Beachboys" brought back refreshing memories of a decade ago.

The Widdops' and Lavoies' attendance highlighted the event as they provided a different point of view to our memories from ten years ago. The stories they told about us must have been fabrications however --no way did we do all those crazy things!!! Or did we???

A resounding rendition of "Auld Lang Syne" culminated the activities of the week amid promises of a fifteen-year reunion - a real tribute to the organizing committee. Special thanks to "the ol' coach" for his time and effort and to all those organizers and the families and friends who made the special effort to travel here. FRIENDS ARE SPECIAL.

Classmates, spouses and friends "hook up" for a trip down the Kam.

Alumni Membership Defined

I graduated, therefore, I am one - right?...Yes, and also...

With four editions of Alumni News under our belt and the organization of seven Alumni Chapters from Ottawa to Vancouver, that often asked question "What or Who is an L.U. Alumnus?" is about to be answered. Not definitively --for that - including the wherefors and whereases, I refer you to article 3 of the L.U. Alumni Constitution. For a more general description - read on.

Alumni voting at this year's annual meeting broadened the membership criteria to include all former students who have successfully completed a minimum one year of study but who have not attended L.U. for at least one year.

President Dusty Miller explained that this change will include and encourage former classmates, particularly of the Lakehead College of Arts, Science and Technology, Lakehead Technical Institute, and Lakehead Teachers College to support and participate in the activities of the Alumni Association, and is in keeping with Alumni membership criteria of other universities. Welcome Alumni.
