Lakehead University Business Association
Mission Statement

Lakehead University Business Association's purpose is:
To provide activities (social, academic and professional) for the benefit of our members, all students who are enrolled in Faculty of Business Administration courses. The activities are intended to complement our members' business studies while at Lakehead University, and foster lifelong camaraderie, learning and community responsibility.

* To promote the accomplishments of Faculty of Business Administration students to the rest of Lakehead University, other universities and business community.

We believe that we will achieve excellence by promoting professional and ethical behaviour at all times.

Because we are a not-for-profit organization, our ultimate success depends largely on voluntarism among our members.

By always striving to do things better, with the cooperation of our membership, volunteers, alumni, faculty, administration and business community, everyone will benefit.

* Our members will have an opportunity to participate in activities (social, academic and professional) that compliment their business studies
* Our volunteers will have an opportunity to apply and strengthen their business and life skills
* Our alumni will have an opportunity to educate our members and network with other alumni
* Our faculty and administration will have an opportunity to educate and develop relationships with our members outside of the classroom
* Members of the business community will have an opportunity to support higher learning and recruit the brightest and the best for their organizations

As the largest business student association on campus, it is imperative that we serve the needs of the many. Our goals will be achieved by coordinating the combined talents of our members, alumni, faculty, administration and the business community.

President's Message

Welcome all Faculty of Business Administration Students to the 1996 - 1997 academic school year. The Lakehead University Business Association (LUBA) will be with you every step of the way through the school year!!

LUBA's main goal is to provide a host of both social and academic events, for all business students to enjoy. Driven by our continuous improvement goal, LUBA is always re-evaluating our products and services to best meet the needs of all students in the Faculty of Business Administration.

Through the past years, LUBA has become a council full of enthusiasm and interest in the Faculty of Business Administration as it is today. Hard work and dedication of the 1996 - 1997 LUBA Council will be the keynote to this year's LUBA success.

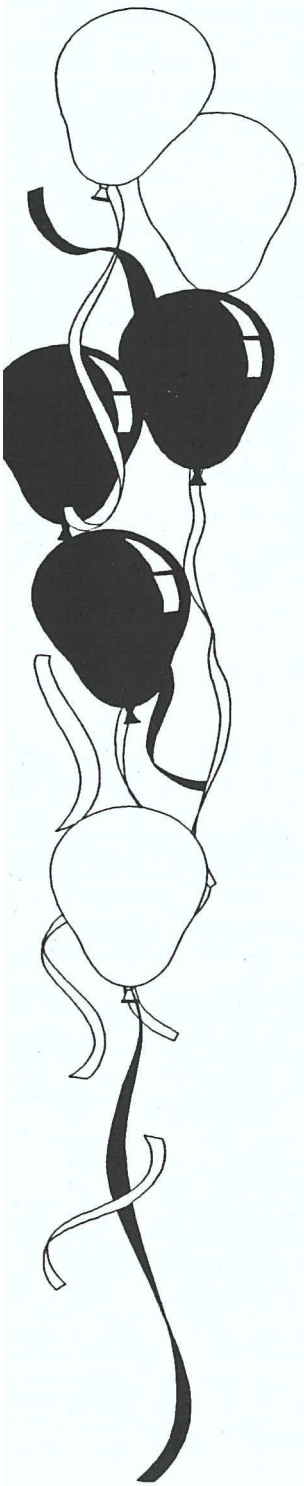

As president, I am honoured to be a part of a fantastic LUBA Council that will provide various activities such as Lakehead Business Clothing Sales, Annual Back to Business Bash, Annual Food Bank Collection and our ever popular Bowl-A-Rama!!

The 1996 - 1997 LUBA Council is proud to distribute the fifth annual Student Handbook to over 600 undergraduate students, faculty, and alumni free of charge. Thanks to the cooperation of the Faculty of Business Administration, volunteers, advertisers, and handbook committee, the 1996 - 1997 LUBA Handbook has been able to be created.

LUBA is always looking for volunteers and ideas. Please e-mail LUBA@ice.lakeheadu.ca with any questions or comments. Have a great year at the Lakehead University Faculty of Business Administration!!

THINGS TO KNOW

Absences From Class

If you are unable to attend a class, speak to the professor before hand, when at all possible. It is also recommended to find a fellow student to photocopy possible handouts from, rather than inconveniencing your professor for them. In addition, be sure to catch up on all readings and assignments before the next class.

The Faculty of Business is filled with academic advisors.....your professors. They are ready and willing to help you choose the correct course and put you on the right track. Each professor has either open or scheduled office hours as well as their own E-mail account. Make an appointment in person, by phone, or through E-mail with your professor to discuss your academic career. If a professor is unavailable, at the time you need counselling, contact your program chair.

Classroom Etiquette

Common courtesy towards your peers as well as your professor is expected from every student. Do not talk when others are talking, do not excuse yourself from class needlessly (to get snacks or roam the halls), and if you are having a snack do so inconspicuously. Above all, remember that respect for your professors and classmates is the key to a rewarding and enjoyable year in the Faculty of Business Administration at Lakehead University.

Study Habits

One of the greatest assets you can have in university is good study habits. They can be acquired or improved upon through workshops, peer study groups, and advice from professors. As fellow students, the best advice we can give is to learn from your mistakes, use this handbook for time management, and most importantly don't procrastinate!!

The Faculty of Business Administration Mission Statement

The Lakehead University Faculty of Business Administration is a community of individuals dedicate quality in management education, emphasizing undergraduate teaching and the on-going developmer our students as decision makers and communicators able to serve society and its organizations effectiv Recognizing that such an endeavour is strengthened by diversity in faculty interests and schol pursuits, the Faculty of Business Administration engages in a broad spectrum of scholarly community activities in support of quality management education.

Lakehead University Management Consulting Service

TEL: (807) 343-8660 FAX: (807) 343-8443

Business owners and managers are constantly confronted with important management decisions. In order to succeed it is essential that the right decisions are made. The Lakehead University Management Consulting service can help. The service, previously known as the Small Business Consulting Service, is designed to help small and medium sized businesses in Northwestern Ontario with all their consulting needs.

The Management Consulting Service provides many types of consulting services in all business areas. Some of the services that are provided include:

Marketing

- Market research
- Feasibility studies
- Business plans
- Marketing plans

Accounting/Finance

- System development
- Bookkeeping
- Funding analysis
- Income tax preparation

nformation Systems

- Software / hardware set-up
- Web site design
- Workstation set-up
- Computer training

Management

- Strategic analysis
- Operational reviews
- Economic risk analysis
- Human resource planning

The Management Consulting Service provides a free and confidential consultation to all clients at a time which is convenient for the clients. The free consultation is aimed at determining the precise needs of the client. Once the clients' needs have been assessed, a detailed proposal is prepared specifying exact time and cost requirements. The Management Consulting Service uses a "process consulting" approach that requires client involvement in all work performed. This provides clients with an in depth knowledge of the procedures used and clients are not surprised with results upon completion of the project.

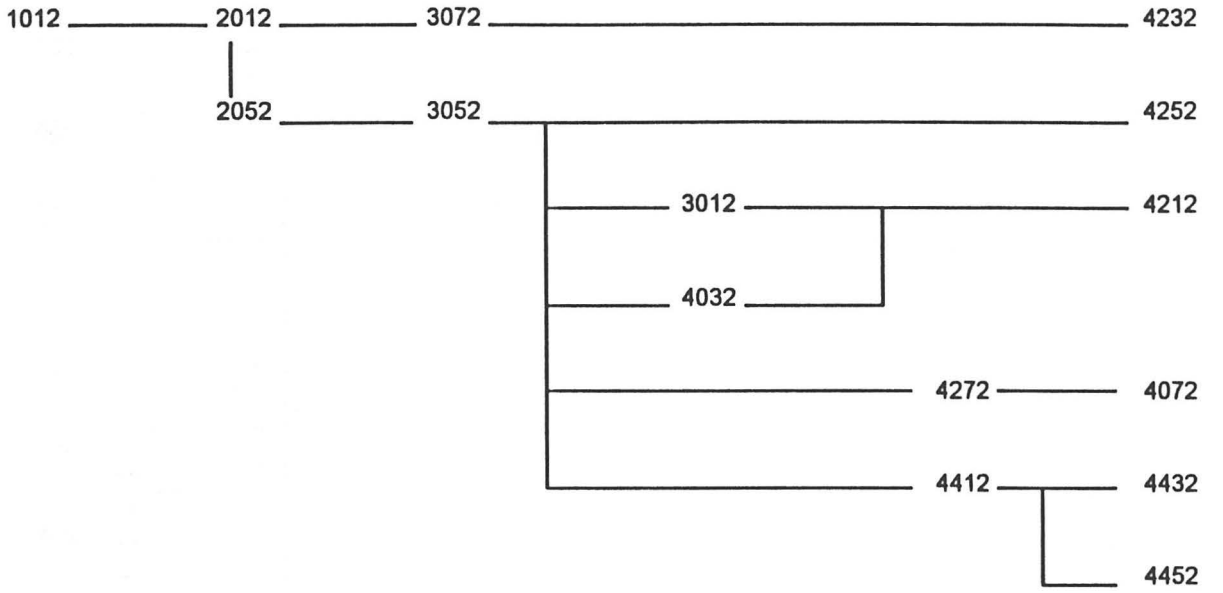

One of the main goals of the Service is to provide employment opportunities for business students. This experience provides business students with an exciting opportunity to apply class room knowledge in real life situations. The Service is managed by senior Business students under the guidance of professor Richard Glew he Service's faculty advisor. During the 1996 - 1997 academic year, John Pierman and Mark Hawkins will nanage the service. This fall and winter the Management Consulting Service will be recruiting students to work on various consulting projects. If you are interested in being a part of our team please drop off your resume in the Faculty of Business Office or drop in (RB 1016) to find out more about the Service.

Intercollegiate Business Competition

Each year the brightest and best business students from across Canada compete in ICBC. Queen's ICBC is becoming the Stanley Cup of the Undergraduate Business Schools - a prize enhancing a school's reputation and igniting fierce pride among students.

Background

The aims and objectives of ICBC are:

- To provide businesses and students alike from across Canada, with a forum for the constructive exchange of ideas and to establish relationships which endure in the future years;
- To challenge and further develop a variety of essential business skills;
- To increase the visibility of all participating schools within the various communities - business, government and public;
- To promote in the eyes of the public, the positive qualities of the business schools and programs;
- To provide an opportunity for social interaction with business students from across Canada.

ICBC is organized entirely by the Queen's University ICBC Committee, a committee of Queen's Commerce students. These students serve on the Committee for one year beginning in February and like most of us, these students have full-time studies!! The Committee has substantial financial support from Queen's Faculty who mark the Preliminary Round case submissions. However, notwithstanding this support, the Committee cannot be praised enough for having hosted this highly popular and successful event over the past 18 years.

Preliminary Round

During the preliminary round, held in September and October of each year, over 20 universities play-off to qualify for the finals by preparing a written case submission for the following disciplines:

Accounting	2 students
Business Policy	3 students
Finance	2 students
Labour Arbitration	2 students
MIS	2 students
Marketing	2 students

Final Round

During the Final Round, held at Queen's University in January, the top five teams in each area of competitior compete for 1st and 2nd place. However in the final round, competitors only have 15 minutes to make an ora presentation to a panel of judges made up of leaders of the Canadian business community (after only 5 hours o preparation)!

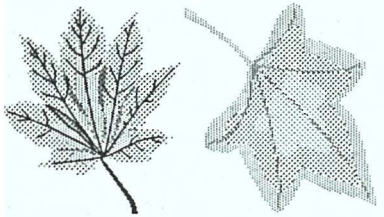

There is also a debating competition introduced in the Final Round - only the top five schools overall are invitec to participate in the debating competition.

Sponsorship

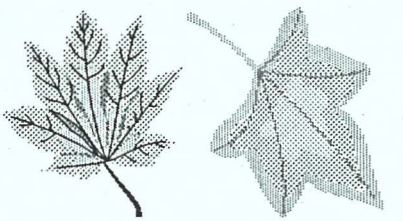

Our team's travel costs to Kingston can be substantial, placing considerable strain on operating funds available to the Faculty of Business Administration (especially at a time when university funding is declining). Three years ago Lakehead was fortunate enough to secure a business sponsor for its ICBC team. The chartered accounting firm KPMG Peat Marwick Thorne established an ICBC endowment fund (eventually self-supporting) to which it contributes annually.
