It has been the policy of the Department of Information Services to send a copy of every news release to members of the academic and administrative staff and the AMS, prior to its release by the local media. The intention was two-fold: to make all members of the University community aware of appointments, changes, etc. before, or at least at the same time, as the general public; and to provide a complete copy of the release as the press version was often shortened or changed. Some members have pointed out that the information was often redundant, especially since internal mailing problems have caused releases to arrive late. Other members, however, have found the releases a valuable source of information and wish to continue receiving copies.

To make this area of communication more effective, two small changes have been made. First, copies of all press releases will now be sent only to department chairmen, the AMS and staff members who wish to be included in the list. (If you wish to receive your own copy, please have your department secretary contact the Department of Information Services.) Copies of all press releases will also be posted on bulletin boards.

Secondly, this expanded weekly events calendar is intended to help fill the growing need for the communication of events, appointments and other information about Lakehead University to the university community at large. Some of the more important press releases will also be presented here in condensed form.

Dr. J. Wreford Watson

DR. WATSON TO SPEAK THURSDAY

One of the world's leading geographers, Dr. J. Wreford Watson, will deliver an address entitled "The University as a Community", on Thursday, March 27th in the University Centre Theatre. As a guest of the Lakehead University Lecture Series Committee, he will give the fifth in a series of lectures entitled "The Nature of the Universities." The talk will begin at 8:15 p.m.

From 1937 until 1949, Dr. Watson was professor and head of the Geography and Sociology Department of McMaster University. He then became Director of the Geographical Branch of the Canadian Department of Mines and Technical services and for five years promoted and organized much of the geographical research in Canada. One of his outstanding contributions was to initiate the production of the official Atlas of Canada.

In 1954 he became head of the Department of Geography at the University of Edinburgh. While at Edinburgh, Dr. Watson was one of the leading forces behind the creation of the University's Faculty of Social Science. He became Dean of this Faculty in 1964.

Dr. Watson was visiting Professor of Geography at the University of British Columbia during the summer of 1968. He presently holds this same position at the University of Manitoba. For the summer of 1969, Dr. Watson will assume the position of Director of Graduate Studies in Geography at Columbia University in New York.

Dr. Watson has been honored by many organizations and societies and he is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, the Royal Society of Edinburgh and the Royal Scottish Geographical Society.

high schools while the Physics department and the Mathematics department brochures are expected to be finished within the next few weeks. A completely revised Summer School brochure will be finished in early April while a major brochure for undergraduates, a 28-page booklet with a full-color cover is expected to be completed in early May. This brochure will replace the Admissions Bulletin. Another major project, a Faculty of Arts booklet, is in the early stages of production. The brochures are being produced by the Dept. of Information in co-operation with the various departments mentioned. The recently appointed University Publications Committee, with representation from students, faculty and administration, is responsible for the overall 'look' of the publications. A general format has been approved with the intention of providing continuity and "a general look of excellence" for all university publications. The committee is not responsible for content. This is the responsibility of the individual departments.

Lakehead University 'Week' will be produced every week and will be distributed throughout the university each Monday. Items concerning events, visitors, papers to be given, awards or honors should be in the hands of the Information Office assistant Miss Judy Breakey no later than Wednesday for publication in the ensuing week.
